

The Studio

a division of Reminence

NOW OPEN: Pamela has opened up her Production Studio to you! Now you can bring your VHS tapes, your CD's, your mini-DV tapes, and your photographs to the studio and capture them yourself! Archive your precious past and create treasured gifts for friends and family!

EQUIPMENT & SUPPORT: You will have access to digital scanning stations, photo capture stations, and digital editing stations. Best of all, Pamela will be available to assist you with the equipment and provide one-on-one guidance. June's introductory session will be creating a special Father's Day movie. Discounts for groups of four (4) per session.

RESERVATIONS: Reserve online at www.Reminence.com or call 480.577.6380 today! Hurry! Stations are reserved on first-come, first-served!

- Digitize your own footage
- Create family movies
- Visual Birthday Cards
- Document family events
- Memorialize Ancestors
- Family Music Video
- Only $40.00 for a 2-hour session
- Computers, VCR's, Cameras, Tutoring
- A place to work without distractions!
- Computer programs include iMovie, Bridge, FCP, Premiere, Photoshop, Soundtrack Pro, After Effects, Lightscribe and more!

Open Studio: Tuesday, Wednesday & Thursday evenings from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. or by appointment

Go to www.Reminence.com to reserve your session or call 480.577.6380.

Reminence

The Essence of Remembering • Full Service Production

Pamela Bowman is the executive producer of Reminence. She has a lifelong appreciation of storytelling, family history and documentary filmmaking. She graduated in Communications and Journalism from Brigham Young University in 1982.

Her filmmaking credits include associate producer for the first dramatic narrative feature film, Bad Timing and companion documentary, VOICES in Zambia, Africa; Executive Producer for The Land of Refuge, a documentary about the Mormon migration to Mexico over 100 years ago; producer of wedding, funeral, anniversaries, birthdays and family reunions.

References upon request. Go to reminence.com to pre-schedule or call 480-577-6380 today.